

Canadian Music Showcase

Invites

performers of cello, flute, harp, organ, piano, recorder, violin and voice

to a non-competitive festival celebrating Canadian music from its earliest times to the present day.

What IS CMS?

CMS was established in 1999 in conjunction with the Canadian Musical Heritage Society.
Nationally recognized adjudicators provide commentary to participants in a small group non-competitive master-class setting.

CMS is about exploring and discovering music by Canadian composers. Students at every level from beginner to advanced are welcome to perform.

Dates

Voice
November 16, 2018
Rideau Park United Church

Piano, Strings, Composition
November 24, 2018
Freiman Hall, Perez Building, U of O

All ages, including adult students, are welcome to participate in graded classes.
Student must register either in the grade at which he or she is presently working, or one grade lower. Time limit allows for more than one short piece to be played by each participant.

Fees for Solo or Duet classes

Entry fee for all classes, primary to advanced, for CMS 2018 is $20.00

Deadline for Submission

Entry form must be filled and submitted by November 2, 2018.

Entry form, and rules pertaining to this festival may be found on our website:

www.canadianmusicshowcase.com

Volunteers Welcome

The heart of CMS is its dedicated cadre of volunteers, mostly (but not necessarily) local teachers. They provide invaluable help on an as-needed basis with planning as well as the variety of administrative and logistical details associated with the event.

For more information, please contact:

Ann Babin
Ann_babin@bell.net
613-830-8826
613-325-4954 (text)